WASHINGTHN, Dec. 29, 1860. Sin: We have the honor to transmit to you a copy of the full powers from the Convention of the people of South Carolina, under which we are "authorized and empowered to treat with the Government of the United States for the of peace and amity between this Common-wealth and the Government at Washington." In the execution of this trust it is our duty to furnish you, as we now do, with an official copy of the Ordinance of Secession, by which the State of South Carolina has resumed the powers she delegated to the Government of the United States, and has declared her perfect sov ereignty and independence. It would also have been our duty to have informed you that we were ready to negotiate with you upon all such questions as are neces-sarily raised by the adoption of this Ordinance, and that we were prepared to enter upon this negotiation, with the earnest desire to avoid all unnecessary and hostile collision, and so to inaugurate our new relations as to secure mutual respect, general advantage, and a future of good will and harmony, beneficial to all the parties

But the events of the last twenty four hours render such an assurance impossible. We came here the representatives of an authority which could, at any time within the past sixty days, have taken possession of the forts in Charleston harbor, but which, upon pledges giv-en in a manner that we cannot doubt, determined te trust to your honor rather than to its own power. Since our arrival here an officer of the United States, acting as we are assured, not not brought to my notice until the 21st instancy without, but against, your orders, has dismantled one fort and occupied another-thus altering to a most important extent, the condiion of affairs under which we came.

Until these circumstances are explained in a manner which relieves us of all doubt as to the spirit in which these negotiations shall be con fucted, we are forced to suspend all discussion as to any arrangements by which our mutual nterests may be amicably adjusted.

And, in conclusion, we would urge upon you to be settled with temperance and judgment .--We have the honor to be Very respectfully, your obedient servite. R. W. BARRWELL, Commissioners. J. H. ADAMS, JAR. L. ORR. To the President of the United States. THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 30, 1860. GENTLEMEN: I have had the honor to receive this may be practicable, the Executive has no act between the Federal Government and South Carolina. He has been invested with no such discretion. He possesses no power to change the relations hitherto existing between them, much less to acknowledge the independence of that State. This would be to invest a mere Executive officer with the power of recognizing the dissolution of the Confideracy among our acto Government-involving no such responsi-

meet you only as private gestlemen of the hgh-est character, and was entirely willing to communicate to Congress any proposition you might have to make to that body upon the subject. Of this you were well aware. It was my earnest desire that such a disposition might be made of the whole subject by Congress, who abne possess the power of the work of t er, as to prevent the inauguration of a civil war between the parties, in regard to the possession of the Federal forts in the harber of Charleston, that in your thorities. But before any step could possession with the federal forts in the harber of that in your thorities. and I, therefore, deeply regret, that in your opinion, "the events of last tventy-four hours render this impossible." In conclusion, you urge upon me "the immediate withdrawl of the large military force went over law withdrawl of the large military force went over law withdrawl the large military force went over law with the large military force went over law withdrawl the large military force went over law with the large military with the large military ance and judgment."

The reason for this change in your position is, that since your arrival in Washington, "an officer of the United States, acting as we (you) are assured, not only without, but against your (my) orders, has dismantled one fort and occupied another—thus altering to a most important extent the condition of a Tairs under which we (you) came." You also allege that you came here "the representatives of an authority which could, at any time within the past sixty days, have taken possession of the forts in Charleston harbor, but which, upon, pledges given in a manner that we (you) candet doubt, determined to trust to your (my) honge rather than to its power."

This brings me to a consideration of the nature of those alleged pledges, and in what manture of the cast of the Federal forts in the harbor of the harbor of the Instant, that possession of these two forts was taken, the Palmetto flag was raised over the Federal Custom-House and Post office in Charleston; and on the same day every office of the Customs—Collector, Naval Officer, Surveyor and appraiser—resigned their offices. And this, although it was well known from the language of my Message that, as an Executive officer, I felt myself bound to collect the revenue at the port of Charleston, under the existing laws. In the harbor of Charleston we now find three forts confronting each other, over all of CHIRTZES, DRESS SILES, and all This brings me to a consideration of the nature of those alleged pledges, and in what manner they have been observed. In my message of the 3d of December last, latated, in regard to the property of the United States in South Carolina, that it "has been purchased for a fair equivalent, by the consent of the Legislature of equivalent, by the consent of the Legislature of the states of the arguing forts, margines. re are now offering at very low prices.

This I cannot do—this I will not believed that any attempt will be made to expel the United States from this property by force; but if in this I should prove to be mistaken, the officer in command of the forts has received orders to act strictly on the defensive. In such a contingency, the responsibility for consequences would rightfully rest upon the heads A PINE SORTMENT OF WATCH. We had an earnest conversation on the subject of these forts, and the best means of preventing a collision between the parties, for the purpose of sparing the effusion of blood. I suggested, for prudential reasons, that it would be best to put in writing what they said to me verbally. They did so, accordingly, and on Monday morning, the 10th inst, three of them presented to me a paper signed by all the Representatives from South Carolina, with a single exception, of which the following is a copy:

In compliance with our statement to you yes terday, we now express to you our strong convictions that neither of the constituted authorities, nor any body of the people of the State of South Carolina, will either attack or molest the United States forts in the harbor of Charleston, previously to the act of the Convention, and we hope and believe not until an offer has been made through an accredited representative, to negotiate for an amicable arrangement of all mattersbetween the State and the Federal Government, provided that no reinforcements shall be sent into those forts, and their relative military status shall remain as at present.

the Government of the United States for the delivery of the forts, magazines, light-houses, and other real estate, with their appurtenances, in the limits of South Carolina; and also for an apportionment of the public debt, and for a division of all other property held by the Government of the United States, as agent of the Confedrated States of which South Carolina was recently a member, and generally to negotiate as to all other measures and arrangements proper to be made and adopted in the existing relation of the parties, and for the continuance of peace and amity between this Common-And tere I must, in justice to myself, re their individual character. I consider it as nothing more, in effect, than the promise of highly honorabte gentlemen, to exert their influence for the purpose expressed The event has proven that they have faithfully kept this promise although I have never since received a TAKEN AT THE HIGHEST RATES. ine from any one of them, or from any mem ber of the Convention on the subject. It is well-known that it was my determination, and this I freely expressed, not to reinforce the forts in the harbor, and thus produce a collision, un-til they had actually been attacked, or until I had certain evidence that they were about to be attacked. This paper I received most cordially, and considered it as a happy omen that peace night be still preserved, and that time might be thus given for reflection. This is the whole foundation for the alledged pledge. But I acted in the same manner as I would have done, had I entered into a positive and for-mal agreement with parties capable of contracting, although such an agreement would have been, on my part, from the nature of my official duties, impossible. The world knows that I have never sent any reinforcements to the forte in Charleston harbor, and I have certainly never authorized any change to be made "in their relative military status." Bearing upon this subject, I refer you to an order issued by the Secretary of War, on the 11th inst., to Major Anderson, but

"MEMORANDUM OF VERBAL INSTRUCTIONS TO MAJOR ANDERSON, FIRST ARTILLERY, COMMANDING FORT MOULTRIE, 8. C.

Under present circumstances, they are a standing menace which render negotiation impossible, and, as our recent experience shows, threatens speedily to bring to a bloody issue questions which ought to be settled with temperance and independent. violence to obtain possession of the public works, or interfere with their occupancy.

But as the counsel and acts of rash and im pulsive persons may possibly disappoint these ex-pectations of the Government, he deems it proper that you should be prepared with instruction to meet so unhappy a contingency. He has, therefore, directed me verbably, to give you such instructions.

You are carefully to avoid every act which your communication of 38th inst, together with and for that reason you are not, without necescopy of "your full powers from the Conven- sity to take up any position which could be contion of the people of South Carolina, "authorizing strued into the assumption of a hostile attitude; you to treat with the Government of the United but you are to hold possession of the forts in this States on various important subjects therein harbor, and if attacked, you are to defend your-States on various important subjects therein monitoned, and also a copy of the Ordinance, bearing date on the 20th inst, declaring that "the Union now subsisting between South Carolina and other States, under the name of the United States of America, is hereby dissolved" In answer to this communication, I have to say that my position as President of the United States was clearly defined in the message to States was clearly defined in the message to crease its power of resistance. You are also Congress on the 3d inst. In that I stated that apart from the execution of the laws, so far as tangible evidence of a design to proceed to a hostil

JOHN B. FLOYD, Sec. of War. These were the last inseructions transmitted to Major Anderson before his removal to Fort the dissolution of the Confideracy among our thirty-three sovereign States. It bears no resemblance to the recognition of a foreign de facto Government—involving no such responsifacto Government—involving no such responsi-bility. Any attempt to do this would, on his part, be a naked act of usurpation. It is there fore, my duty to submit to Congress the whole question in all its bearings."

Such is my opinion still. I could, therefore, and inatter requires that major Anderson acted upon his own responsibility, and without authority, unless, indeed, he had "tangible evidence of a design to proceed to a hostile act" on the part of South Carolina, which has not yet been al-leged. Still, he is a brave and homorable editors, and inatter requires and justice requires that he should not be con-demned without a fair hearing.

Thus the authorities of South Carolina, without waiting or asking for any explanatious, and doubtless believing, as you have expressed it, that the officer had acted not only without, but against my orders, on the very next day after the night when the on the very next day after the night when the removal was made, seized by a military force two of the Federal forts in the harbor of
